

A Note from the Director

Dear Parents,

We are asking you to please have your child here by 8:30am, if possible. The children are learning their songs for the Preschool Program which will be held on May 23rd.

Parents of Mrs. Teddie and Miss Marisa's class, please return your child's progress report after you have read and signed it. You will be able to keep it permanently in June.

The Preschool Staff is excited for our annual OPEN HOUSE on Thursday, May 9th, from 6:30-8:00 p.m. Preschool will close on that date at 12:00pm, in order for staff to prepare for Open House. There is no after school care for preschool. Late fees start at 12:01. Please allow enough time to park as the K-8 grades are getting out at 12:00 noon. Please mark your calendar for you and your family to attend.

Please be sure to put names on coats and sweaters, and all personal items.

-Miss Christina

Prayer is powerful. It allows us to communicate to the One True Living God. God not only wants to hear from us, but because of His great love for us - He wants us to seek and ask Him so that He can answer accordingly.

As a parent God entrusts you with one of His most precious gifts and one of the best ways we can protect our children is to pray over them and for them. For a more specific way to pray for your child go to www.desiringgod.org/articles/seven-things-to-pray-for-your-children.
